Rules

- 1) Non-resident property owners pay the lower non-resident rate. A current tax bill is required as evidence of ownership. The resident rate is reserved for full time residents.
- 2) A seasonal renter of a Gloucester property can qualify for the lower non-resident rate if they can show a lease for at least 30 days.
- 3) A qualified seasonal renter who is over 65 will get a non-resident sticker. Free senior stickers are meant for Gloucester residents only.
- 4) A resident can get a sticker for a company owned vehicle if they have a letter, on company stationery, signed by an officer of the firm, stating that the employee has exclusive use of that vehicle.
- 5) An unmarried live-in partner of a non-resident property owner may only qualify for a lower rate non-resident sticker if they share ownership in the Gloucester property.
- 6) A spouse of a non-resident property owner qualifies for a lower rate non-resident sticker.
- 7) Servicemen stationed in Gloucester may obtain a lower rate non-resident sticker with an official note from their commanding officer confirming their temporary residence.
- 8) Adult children 21 or over living with their parents must have proof of residency (registration or license showing a Gloucester address).
- 9) Minor children under 21, but living at college may obtain a resident sticker even if their registration and/or license address is out-of-state if they have a current and valid college identification card.
- 10) A non-resident business owner who leases, but does not own, commercial space does not qualify for a sticker. The owner of the real estate, however, qualifies for the applicable resident or non-resident sticker.
- 11) To qualify for a senior sticker, you must be 65 years old during the calendar year of the beach season. E.g. for the 2004 season you must be born on or before 12/31/1939.
- 12) If a property is owned in trust, the sticker recipient must have proof that he is a trustee or beneficiary to qualify for a lower rate non-resident sticker. Residents qualify for a resident sticker without ownership proof.
